

Generali appoints Manlio Lostuzzi as Regional Officer of the Central Eastern Europe region

Prague – Generali has appointed Manlio Lostuzzi as the Regional Officer of the Central Eastern Europe region, effective as of 1st September 2022.

The region is part of the International Business Unit, headed by CEO Jaime Anchústegui. The appointment follows the organizational changes, announced on 22nd June 2022, to support the priorities of the 'Lifetime Partner 24: Driving Growth' strategy. This new organizational structure included extending the geographical scope of the International Business Unit to the Central Eastern Europe region.

The International Business Unit, under the leadership of CEO International Jaime Anchústegui, will be organized in three regions:

- International - Asia, headed by Robert Leonardi;
- International - Central Eastern Europe, headed by Manlio Lostuzzi;
- International - Mediterranean & Latin America, headed by Santiago Villa.

With over 30 years of experience, Manlio Lostuzzi joined Assicurazioni Generali in 1986 and has covered a variety of managerial roles within the Group. Manlio Lostuzzi graduated in Statistics, Actuarial and Economic Sciences from the Università degli Studi di Trieste. Since 2019 he has been the CEO of Generali Corporate & Commercial, as well as, since 2022, the Head of GBL Insurance Technical Coordination.

Jaime Anchústegui, CEO International of Generali, said: "The International Business Unit now includes the Central Eastern Europe region, boosting coordination and operating synergies across our business while fully supporting the priorities of the 'Lifetime Partner 24: Driving Growth' strategic plan. Manlio brings proven international experience and expertise which will be essential to face the current economic and social context whilst achieving our strategic objectives."

Manlio Lostuzzi will maintain ad-interim the role of CEO Generali Global Corporate & Commercial until further notice.
